HEALTH OCCUPATIONS

www.efe-340.com

Hands-On Training

This hands-on course meets during the school year at a local healthcare facility, where students explore various departments, learn from medical professionals, and provide patient care as part of a healthcare team.

Benefits of the Program

Medical Terminology & Anatomy

- Physiology
- Health
- Disease etiology

CNA Exam Prep

- Gain skills required to take the State of Illinois CNA exam

Dual Credit

Lake Land College

- Earn dual credit through Lake Land College

CPR Certified

- Become healthcare provider CPR certified

Career Pathways in Healthcare

With hundreds of healthcare career options, students are provided with information to help them choose the pathway and potential career that's right for them!

Direct patient care & Therapeutic Services

Health Informatics & Business

Healthcare Facility Support Services

Biotechnology Research & Development

Medical Imaging & Diagnostic Services

Ready to enroll?

See your High School Counselor or contact EFE-340 Director, Justin Deters

jdeters@efe-340.com | 217-258-6283